

SPECIAL GUESTS LISA COLLIS, MAXINE BAKER AND DR. SUSAN ORR.

THE 2006 ALLIES IN PREVENTION AWARDS LUNCHEON

APRIL 5, 2006

More than 130 guests, including elected officials, abuse prevention advocates, social service providers and members of the press, attended the 4th annual Allies in Prevention Awards Luncheon on April 5, 2006. Guests were on hand to join SCAN of Northern Virginia and the Allies in Prevention Coalition in honoring six local individuals who have gone above and beyond in supporting and protecting the children of Northern Virginia. The event also kicked off Northern Virginia's Blue Ribbon Campaign for April, National Child Abuse Prevention Month.

Keynote speaker Dr. Susan Orr of the Federal Children's Bureau provided a powerful vantage point emphasizing the strength and potential for regional programs to make an impact on the country's children. Other special guests included Lisa Collis, former First Lady of the Commonwealth of Virginia, and Maxine Baker, President and CEO of the Freddie Mac Foundation.

Honoring those who make a difference every day: (L to R) Special guest Lisa Collis and Gail Ledford, SCAN Board President, presented awards to the 2006 Ally in Prevention Award winners: Louise Drucker with Arlington County Department of Human Services; Karen Smith with ARC of Greater Prince William; Jill Applebaum, Esq., with the Alexandria City Attorney's office; Hon. Pamela Brooks with the Loudoun County Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court; (seated) Nancy Coffey with Fairfax County Department of Family Services; Mary O'Donnell with Alexandria City Attorney's Office.

Special thanks to all who made this very special event possible!

2006 ALLY IN PREVENTION AWARD WINNERS