

2013

HOW WE DEFINED HOPE LAST YEAR, BY THE NUMBERS:

HOPE IS CHANGING CHILDREN'S LIVES THROUGH ADVOCACY.

79 CASA VOLUNTEERS spoke out for the best interests of 165 CHILDREN and 100 FAMILIES in the Alexandria and Arlington court systems. 6,106 HOURS contributed by CASA volunteers had a combined value of $148,315.

HOPE IS EMBRACING ALL FAMILIES THROUGH SUPPORT & EDUCATION.

18 PARENTS & 29 CHILDREN participated in SCAN's new Parent Café workshops. 37 TEEN PARENTS participated in the Family Links Preparing for Parenting class. 28 PARENTS, 15 TEENS & 3 CHILDREN participated in monthly Reunification support groups. 64 PARENTS participated in SCAN's parenting classes last year. 202 CHILDREN participated in SCAN's children's programs.

HOPE IS GIVING ADULTS THE POWER & KNOWLEDGE TO PROTECT CHILDREN.

242 ADULTS were trained at 17 TRAINING EVENTS in the Stewards of Children child sexual abuse prevention program. 18 YOUNG PROFESSIONALS joined SCAN's Council of Young Professionals. 247 VOLUNTEERS made every SCAN program possible.

HOPE IS SHARING THE SUPPORTS THAT HELP FAMILIES THRIVE.

78 INDIVIDUALS were members of the Allies in Prevention Coalition. 500+ downloads were made from SCAN's website every month, which had 4,800 MONTHLY VISITORS. 25 LOCAL BUSINESSES & GROUPS became Pinwheel Partners.
