

A SPECIAL OPPORTUNITY FOR PARENTS & COMMUNITY MEMBERS

Growing Resilience in Our Community

Becoming an ACE (Adverse Childhood Experience) Informed Community

FREE DOCUMENTARY SCREENING + PANEL DISCUSSION

Resilience: The Biology of Stress & The Science of Hope demonstrates how parents, caregivers and educators can disrupt cycles of violence, addiction and disease through safe, stable and nurturing relationships.

www.resiliencemovie.com

TUESDAY, MAY 16, 2017

Charles Houston Recreation Center
901 Wythe Street Alexandria, VA 22314

7:00 PM Film Screening | 8:00 PM Panel Discussion

Panelists:

Dr. Katherine Deye, Child & Adolescent Protection Specialist, INOVA Hospital

Diana Bermudez, Ph.D., LPC, Northern Virginia Family Service

Judith Martens, LCSW, IMH-E IV, Infant Mental Health Consultant

Seating is limited. Please reserve your seat at

<https://resiliencemoviealexandria.eventbrite.com>

ALEXANDRIA DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNITY AND HUMAN SERVICES (DCHS)
THE CENTER FOR ALEXANDRIA'S CHILDREN
NORTHERN VIRGINIA FAMILY SERVICE,
HEALTHY FAMILIES ALEXANDRIA
SCAN OF NORTHERN VIRGINIA